Conditions and Instructions

8. Judging/Recording

- * Judges give a place ticket to each competitor as they finish
- * Competitors line up in finishing order and proceed to the recorders
- * Recorder (1) records the place of each competitor (in his/her school's column on "the point score sheet"). The best three (3) places for each school are totalled to arrive at the team point score (and hence place for) each age division. Age division point scores are totalled to determine overall point scores and carnival placings.
- * Recorder (2) records the name and school of the 1st then (10) placegetters on the "major placings sheet"
- * The first eight (8) placegetters qualify for the Sydney West Carnival. Placegetters 9 and 10 are reserves and recorded in case of a withdrawal.

9. Points Score

Points are scores against each team for positions finished. The best (lowest) 3 places only are counted towards the team point score. The school with the lowest aggregate will be the Champion School in that Division

10. Protests

- a. Protests shall be dealt with by the Disputes Committee, comprising of:
  - Carnival Convenor
  - Relevant Officials
  - Or PSSA Executive Officer
- b. No protest shall be considered unless lodged by the relevant School Tem Manager in writing, not exceeding 15 minutes after the event.

11. School Seating

- a. All competitors and spectators must sit in their team area
- b. School areas are to be left clean before leaving the ground.
